A Tribute from a Neighbor

I speak for many. The entire village knew Gene well.

Here he was born and grew to manhood and this is the town he loved.

College years and business interests gave him a legion of friends around the State of Maine.

The months that have gone since he last walked up street with his Daschund at his heels have been filled with stark hopelessness.

If Gene's courage wavered no one knew it. His physical endurance was matched by his spiritual strength.

Keeping a smiling front, tending to business, playing cribbage, wood-carving, and greeting many friends he faced the inevitable with a calmness seldom equaled and never surpassed.

And in compassion, perhaps with solemn wonder, the Angel of Death touched him lightly as he slept.

Edward R. Stanley and son, Robert, of Berlin, N. H., were at the Stanley home Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodman Barlow and family were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Chapman.

Bethel Inn will receive national recognition in the 1961 edition of the illustrated Duncan Hines travel book "Vacation Guide" coming out this month. The Inn is one of 1700 vacation places in North America—from luxury resorts to rough-and-ready fishing camps — "Recommended by Duncan Hines."

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

February is the month in which the greater number of motor vehicle excise taxes are received. When paying your excise tax be sure and bring your 1960 registration which provides the necessary information for issuing the 1961 excise tax receipt with which the 1961 registration is obtained. If the 1960 registration is not presented it results in an inconvenience both to the Town Office and the applicant.

A hearing was heard by the Public Utilities Committee of the Legislature on Feb. 1st concerning the bill the "Bethel Utilities Act." Those attending as proponents were the Town Manager, Henry Hastings, Harold Bennett, Maurice Kendall, and Louise Lincoln. There was no one present in opposition to the bill. At the conclusion of the hearing it was decided that there were several changes that should be made to satisfy the committee and that the bill should be re-drafted. A re-draft has been prepared for presentation to the Legislative Committee.

The Budget Committee held their third meeting on Feb. 2nd. All business was not completed therefore another meeting will be held about the middle of the month. The new article concerning the reconstruction of Chapman Street, including sidewalk and sewer, is still to be considered. The Committee is inviting the School Committee and Superintendent of Schools to be present at the final meeting for further consideration of the school budget.

Inquiry has been made at the Bridge Division of the State Highway Commission relative to the proposed construction of a new overhead bridge at the intersections of Railroad and Church Sts. The informant for the Highway Commission stated that they expect to let the contract in June. Note that they used the word "expect" in their statement which indicates that it is not certain.

Sincerely,
Harold L. Bean

As a two weeks period of cold weather ended last Thursday, a period of heavy snowfall and high winds covered much of the East as far south as the Carolinas. Snow Saturday in Boston amounted to over 14 inches and 16 inches was reported in New York City. The Maine coast had from 4 to 6 inches, while less than a half inch arrived here. Mild weather has been enjoyed so far this week.

A surprise housewarming was given Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Blake MacKay. Hostesses were, Mrs. Maurice Kendall, Mrs. Charles Heino and Mrs. Louis Paul. BETHEL JAYCEES SPONSOR BASKETBALL GAME HERE

An evening of basketball such as the people in Bethel probably have never seen and may never see again will take place at William Bingham Gymnasium in Bethel on Wednesday, Feb. 15, at 7 p. m.

A preliminary game will feature two teams from local grade schools. In the main contest of the evening the "Bethel Jaycee Mothers" (don't let the name fool you—it's really the Bethel Jaycees) will challenge that well known team "Melvin's Chicken Pluckers" made up of talent from the Rumford-East Bethel area.

In order to add interest to this event, the Jaycees will be attired in women's apparel. Can't you just picture Larry Davis driving in for a lay-up clad in pleated skirt and Ship & Shore blouse? And how about Elden Greenleaf going up for a rebound in tight skirt and form-fitting sweater?

For an evening of fun and basketball on the less serious side, plan to be at William Bingham Gymnasium next Wednesday.

Proceeds from this will help the Jaycees defray expenses on projects such as their polio clinic, teen age activities and Miss Oxford County Pageant.

Androscoggin As Recreational Area

If trout and salmon could be brought back to the Androscoggin River between Gilead and Newry, this area would soon be an active recreational center supporting summer homes, camps, boating, fishing and water sports. The value of such a development to the economic life of Bethel can well be appreciated.

This development is possible if the present causes of pollution in the river can be corrected. Maine's Life Blood, recently published by the House of Fal-mouth in Portland and now in the Bethel Library, should be read by all who are interested in such a possibility.

Thanks to a Federal Law covering pollution of rivers crossing state lines the Androscoggin in the Bethel area has definite possibilities of being restored to support game fish. Possibly a study of this area could be made by a Bethel Area Development group working with the Natural Resources Council of Maine.

TODAY'S Meditation

Chelipper Room
THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Thursday, February 9
Read Ephesians 2:1-10
By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God. (Ephesians 2:8).

While I was conducting a preaching mission in a village in the United Arab Republic, a man called Yacsa invited three others and me for lunch. He prepared a rich banquet at his house. He greeted us so nicely, saying, "We are greatly honored. Feel at home and help yourselves." Suddenly, his eyes were moist with tears. He hurried at once to another room and shut himself in.

As his wife saw my surprise, she stepped in and said, "I am sorry. My husband is a drunkard. He can't enjoy a meal unless he drinks. He went because he couldn't eat with you."

A few minutes later, our host came back. He looked at me and said: "Please don't preach at me. I know more than you do what wine is. I have tried all means to overcome it, but in vain."

I replied: "I am not going to preach at you. I believe every word you say. But may I add just a word? There is a power that can save you. You need not try it; just trust it. It is the grace of Jesus the Saviour.
Take hold of it through faith."

He did, and won a victory.
PRAYER: Our loving Father, source of every good gift, grant us Thy gift of faith that links us with our all-powerful Saviour, through whom we become more than conquerors. In His name.
Amen.

COUNTRY FLAVOR

LARD PAUL LUNCHEONS
The countryman does not want to be misunderstood. He favors plenty of minerals, 47 mysterious alphabetical and numerical vitamins, hot lunches for school children, and diets that are balanced on certified scales. Nowadays with pressure cookers that bludgeon good food into despairing submission, it is possible to toss a meal together while one sings a single stanza of Darling Nellie Gray.

Time was when boys and girls in District No. 9 gathered around the hot stove at noon hour and opened their lard paul lunches. The lard paul lunches were packed with substantial cold roast pork sandwiches, a pickle or two, perhaps a jar of applesauce and a big piece of Mother's famous black walnut cake with thick white frosting.
Sometimes there was a wedge of apple pie that one held in the hand and ate point first.

Science has de-lard more efficient containers for lard. If children carry lunches, they have special boxes designed for the purpose. Half a century ago no one ever heard of a thermos bottle and children drank from a common dipper that hung on a nail above the outer pail. No one had heard of a thermos bottle to these days and no one wanted.

We are glad that modern children have hot lunches. We are happy that larger schools have chromium-plated cafeterias and serve hot spinach. But there are millions of Americans who recall when they tramped country roads to a district school, and as they walked along, swung a lard paul by its wire handle. Lard paul lunches have gone—along with soapstones, bootjacks and high button shoes, but there are some who think that life was more flavorful in those less complicated days of yesteryear.

SKI CLUB NEWS

In their first competitive ski meet, held last Saturday at the Sunday River Skiway, the youngsters of the local junior ski team were winners over the Webster Ski Club of Auburn. Bud Kendall of the Auburn team was the individual star of the meet, winning both the Giant Slalom and the Slo-gam. However, the combined efforts of the locals, led by Jack Brooks, Jeff Clough, Daryl Young, Pete Kelley and Ronnie Smiley were sufficient to secure victory for the Bethel boys.

On this coming Saturday, Feb. 11, the boys are entered in the State Junior Ski Meet being held this year on the Black Mountain skiway in Plymouth. It would give the locals a good chance to win a state title.

LETTER TO A TEEN-AGER

This letter to an editor from "A Mother" has been reprinted so many times that its origin has been lost, but republication hasn't caused it to lose its point.—Clipped from "Reader's Digest"

Always we hear the spoiled plaintive cry of the teen-ager:
"What can we do, where can we go?"

I can make some suggestions, Go home!

Paint the woodwork. Mow the lawn. Wash the car. Learn to cook. Scrub some floors. Repair the sink. Build a boat. Get a job!

Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your village does not owe you recreational facilities!

The world does not owe you a living.

You owe the world something. You owe it your time and energy and your talents.

Help the minister, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army.
Visit the sick, assist the poor.
And when you are through and not too tired—read a book.

Angvine and Sue Coppick were selected as king and queen and they will reign over this week's dance.

Prize winners were: door prize, Pat Davis; spot dance

Peiffer, Virginia Tibbets and Danny Torres, Nancy Morin and Harry Kimball; skaters' waltz, Pat Davis and Roger Tibbets.

A "week end chalet" built by Davis Building Supply was set up Wednesday at the Sunday River Skiway. The attractive 18x24 foot structure was built in sections in the Davis shop.
Designed for use in any sports or recreation purpose, it should be popular for a great range of vacation uses. At the Skiway for exhibition purposes, it can readily be erected on any lot or on leased land in ski areas.

this, their first major competition.

Junior Ski Instructions

Last week end was the first under the new set-up for schooling the juniors in the regular Sunday River Ski School. This program is probably one of the most ambitious ever undertaken by any ski club. Every junior member of the club is assured of a full course of instruction in Nils Torjensen's fine ski school. We hope that all parents will see to it that their sons and daughters arrive at the registration desk in plenty of time each week at the designated time.
The first group on Saturday at 9:45 a. m., second at 12:45 p. m., third on Sunday at 12:45 p. m. If you are not sure just when your youngster should report, call Mary Paine, Emily Saunders, Dana Douglas or Charlie Farrar. The list is also posted at the skiway.

Here is pictured a West Bethel building, familiar to several generations in the style of painting followed on much of the property of Alpheus S.
Bean. Formerly a one story home, it was bought by Mr.
Bean in 1877 and afterward developed to the present size.
For years it was known as the "Hotel," and used as a boarding house for the Bean employees. A later period saw it again as a boarding place for many who worked in the "post card factory" of Whitten & Dennison, an industry which moved to Auburn, Indiana, about 50 years ago.

Since Mr Bean's death in 1899, his owners include Stahl Brothers, G. Dana Morrill, Earl Jordan, Clarence Bennett, Richard McLaughlin, Franklin Burlaughier and I was kept so neat and clean. I wondered what would come next.

I did not have long to wait before a big happy family of children were to move in and did we have happy times then.
Their father and mother were good hard working people, and the little folks had lots of room outside to play their merry games. More, rents were made within my walls and sometimes as many as four families called me their home. How well I loved them all. Tiny babies were born here and were sheltered and warm when the cold north wind blew through our pretty village.

I have been sold many times and have seen all kinds of people come and go. After I was left alone sometimes older people would fix up a few of my rooms and they found comfort and seclusion in their own little apartments.

The years flew by and I was finally sold to a man and woman with a family of six girls and I was very happy as they were hard working people and had lots of plans for making me shine once again. My old gas lights were all gone and I had new bright electric ones instead. These people put a good bathroom into one of my upstairs rooms, and they painted and papered my walls and ceilings until I shone and almost felt my lonesome days were over and they would stay here and be happy with me.

But one day I heard about going away and perhaps selling me as I was so big and it cost so much to do all they felt needed to be done to me and the big barn which stands across the yard from my west side. Before long I was again sold and the girls took away their pretty things from all their cozy rooms and started for the sunny south. Now I was really blue and forlorn.

I learned that a good man had bought the whole big farm and that lots of cattle would come to live in the barn and the big field which had always belonged with me. I hoped that there would be more children come to live here and I would not be forgotten in the rush to fix up the barn. There were some come to stay a while and we were good friends. The pretty white faced cattle had big yards near me and would stand and gaze at me at the close of day. I felt they were my friends and I wondered if they felt some pity for me since the big barn had its new coat of paint and I was given only a partial coat of somber gray.

My condition got worse, the little children and their parents moved away, the cattle were sold and I had no more friends left. Everyone in our pretty village felt so sorry for me as they had all hoped this fine man and his family would make me into a beautiful home everyone could be proud of.

This information was received through the kindness of Elbert Briggs of West Bethel who has saved records taken from old newspapers.

Mr. Briggs, known to all his friends as "Bertie," is a painter and paper hanger by trade. He built his little home on the Flat Road, and has always been interested in reading and collecting items and stories of interest to the community. He is a great favorite with the boys and has always done a great deal to help the teenage group.
At present he has a neighbor's son staying with him and going to Gould Academy. Mr.
Briggs is also interested in photography and has many oldtime pictures of interest to Bethel people in his collection.

THE MEAT PACKING COMPANIES

In the past two years the companies in the meat packing industry have begun to bear out the hopes of investors. The earnings for many companies turned decisively upward and the share prices performed in similar fashion.

The many new plants constructed in recent years brought a marked increase in efficiency and raw material costs were lessened by the larger supply of cattle. These two factors were the prime reasons for the improved results, supported by the expanding population and growing consumer income. Nevertheless, in the next year or more further progress can be expected in the industry. The same factors should be at work in this coming period as significantly as in the recent period and the shares, in our opinion, still have considerable appreciation potential at current levels.

For the next 18 months, the outlook is encouraging. Cattle supplies are expected to be 6-8% higher. Over 100-million head are currently on the range and the movement to market ought to be substantial for the next two or three years. Hog numbers will probably continue tight for the first half but thereafter a definite improvement is forecast. Prices of hogs stand at high levels ($19 per hundredweight), and should include a good increase in farrowings as farmers take advantage of the attractive price situation. In the latter half of 1961 and the first part of 1962, prices for this animal ought to trend steadily downwards. Historically, the swing in such prices is sharp and profit margins are affected dramatically. In the latter part of 1961, the cattle and hog cycle may well turn favorable at the same time, an extremely favorable situation which does not occur often.

Swift & Co.: The company has spent substantial sums in the past seven years and a heavy percentage of its fixed plant is new. The company has always enjoyed strong finances and a large cash flow from depreciation is generated. While 1960 results were somewhat disappointing, the potential for a sizeable gain in earning power remains.

V. A. NEWS LETTER

A reminder to any of the remaining Spanish-American War veterans who desire outpatient care from private physicians at VA expense was issued today by the Veterans Administration.

Such veterans, the VA said, should notify the nearest VA office immediately. For most veterans of this war, the VA can pay for outpatient care from private physicians only when it has been authorized by the agency before the treatment is given.

In emergency cases, however, the V. A. may issue an authorization for emergency non-hospital treatment already given, when the agency is notified by the veteran or his physician within 15 days from date treatment began.

Veterans Administration records show that there were 34,000 living Spanish-American War veterans as of November 30, 1960.

HEART FUND DRIVE ON DURING FEBRUARY

Kenneth E. Hardy, Bangor, State Campaign Chairman of the Maine Heart Fund, has announced that more than 20,000 volunteers from every community in the State are in the month long drive for contributions for the Heart Fund. Benefits and tag days will be held in many Maine communities during February with the peak of the campaign falling on Heart Sunday, Feb. 26, when the thousands of volunteers will ring door bells in a community canvass for funds to defeat the Nation's Number 1 Killer.

Hardy pointed out that heart and circulatory diseases kill more Maine people than any other cause of death. The latest available statistics, 1959, show that of the 10,817 deaths from all causes in the State, 4,960 of these were attributed to diseases of the heart and circulatory system. In the same year, cancer killed 1500 persons in the State. "The need for funds is greater than ever and 75 per cent of every dollar contributed to the Heart Fund goes into research, education and community service in Maine," Hardy continued.

These funds also aid in the financing of cardiac clinics in Waterville, Rumbold, Caribou, Lewiston, Portland, Bangor and Brunswick. These clinics
